

Century College 2012 DigiLit Conference

THURSDAY
JANUARY 5, 2012

East Campus, Century College
9:00AM - 3:00PM

The DigiLit Conference is an opportunity for employees of all technology skill levels to address issues of technology access, opportunity and knowledge in our campus community. Please join us for a day of thoughtful discussion and learning about our tech use.

Conference features will include first looks at data collected on how our students use technology, an open technology sharing forum, and afternoon breakout discussion sessions. Lunch is provided and registration is free.

This conference is free and open to all Century College employees and advisory committee members from academic programs. Registration for the conference is available using STARS at <https://secure.mnsu.edu/mnscupd/login/>.
